WORK HISTORY

SACCOOR BROTHERS (Dubai, UAE)

Senior Sales Executive (December 2017 – Present)

My responsibilities are here quite enough such as assisting customers with a polite way and always with smile. Serving them with what we have in the store: Sacoor coffee, water, tailoring service, look sharp (customer can clean their glasses). Besides this, I have been gaining a lot of experiences in a stockroom and merchandizing. We are continuously replenishing the products in the store and trying to keep the clothes neatly folded. Of course, at the same time we should focus on sale and monthly targets and company aims. Furthermore, customer service helps us to achieve these goals and it helps to bring customers back to our store.

American Eagle (Dubai, UAE)

Sales associate (October 2016 – November 2017)

Generally, as a sales associate greeting customers, responding to questions, improving engagement with merchandise and providing outstanding customer service were my responsibilities. Besides this operating cash register, managing financial transactions. And at the same time we had to focus on achieving established goals and monthly targets with the help of teamwork, hardworking and creating good working atmosphere.

Cartier (Moscow, Russia)

Sales assistant (May 2014 - August 2016)

In this luxury store I started my career as sales person. First of all, good product knowledge and perfect verbal communicational skills are vital aspect of selling jewellery or watches for VIP customers. Once customer walking to the door we welcome and greet them and all the time we tried to know customer needs. Of course, customer come to any store for different reason: for buying, collecting, replacing and etc. At the end we became a reason for them to add one more jewellery or watch to their collection.
